When I was inside of this unit the officers inside of I-A had me sleeping on the steel frame with no mat they further refused to feed me for a whole week they also refuse to let me write any letters or use the phone to contact my family and friends at all. They further assaulted me inside of my cell while I was in handcuff and when they did decided to feed me they feed me a bag lunch for breakfast, lunch, and dinner which was two sandwich and a nice for about another week. They further did not let me take any shower at all and while I was up front being process they used the stungun to stung me inside of a cell for just flooding the cell after they stung me with the stungun they started to beat me and handcuff me inside the cell before they took me to I-A lock-up unit.
